After dropping bombs at Malden the airship turned north and dropped more explosives at Haybridge. It may have been the same craft seen at 1 o'clock flying over Harwich. A second attack was made between 12:30 and 2:45 on Southwold. At Lewstoft three bombs were dropped, a lumber yard set on fire, three horses killed and many windows broken. At Southwold several bombs were dropped and the railway tracks were fired. At Maiden a house was struck but only slightly damaged. At Haybridge several bombs were dropped but no damage has been reported.

A telegram from Muiden in Holland says the Norwegian steamer, Dag, came into that port this morning and reports having sighted a Zeppelin at 5 o'clock fifteen miles off the Dutch coast. The airship was headed toward Germany and is believed to be
